All possible attempts made to trace the papers relating to the payment of bonus in 1913, if any, are in vain. From the remarks made by the Private Secy against this item in the estimate forwarded with his letter of the 22nd July 1919 it may be safely presumed that no such bonus was paid on that occasion.

2/ 5/8 The bill maybe sanctioned. No Exception was taken to this item at the time accepting the estimates. This is a precedent also for paying bonus. This was done in the case of the Subordinate Establ. of the Irrt Dept for Khedda work. The pvt. Home work Could not have been less arduous.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in the estima of probable expenditure submitted to Government in connection with the recent Viceregal Visit a sum of Rs.850 was provided on account of bonus to Government House officials and servants and the same not only included in the grant sanctioned in G.O.No.G.3819-20 P.P. 1.19.16 dated 14th August 1919 but also included in statement C shewing the bills yet to be passed and the extra gran of Rs.22635-14-4 sanctioned in G.O. No.G.26347-8 P.P. 1.19.1126 dated 22/27nd May 1920. The comptroller to Government who was requested to authorize the Treasury Officer, Mysore District, for payment of the amount to me on presentation of a bill duly signed by me, states that no bonus can be paid to Government servants in addition to pay without the express sanction of Governm (vide copy of letter No.172 T.A.D.A. dated 26-7-20 encl I therefore request that express sanction of Government for disbursement of Rs.850/- being the bonus payable to Government House officials and servants and payment of which has already been sanctioned in the Government order of 22/27th May 1920 quoted above, may kindly be

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 46 dated 17th July 1920 requesting this office to issue instructions to the Mysore District Treasury Officer to encash a bill for Rs.850/ to be presented by you on account of bonus to Government House Officials, I have the honor to point out that as per article 49, Mysore Service Regulations, no bonus can be paid to Government servants in addition to pay that they already draw without the express sanction of Government. The total amount placed at your disposal, for expenditure in connection with the Viceregal visit was only Rs.1,90,000/- as per revised orders of Government passed in their No. G.4939-51/P.P.1-19-2 dated 27th August 19 which consequently reduced the original grant of Rs. 1,17,500/- sanctioned in Government order No. G. 3819-20/P.P.1-19-165 dated 14th August 19 to Rs. 1,10,000/-.
